Science Inquires Into Bridges, Autos, Cells

Physics examined structural stress. Students designed and built model bridges of balsa wood, cardboard, glue, and string as part of their class. Barton Smith's bridge held a weight of 11,150 grams and still stands.

In December the future physicists developed air propelled cars as their final exam.

Chemistry unknowns were a standard feature of the class. Compounds became elements and elements were converted into compounds as Na+C1=NaC1.

Microscope scanners searched for cellular shapes in onions. Iodine on fresh onions turned them red and easier to identify for cell structure. The aim: introduce microscopic procedure and identify single cell structures. The usual biological highlight was frog dissection which provided understanding of muscles and internal organs.

Guest Speakers, Field Trips Bring History to Life

Freshman stepped back in time into ancient world history. Their subjects ranged from Cro-magnon men to the Renaissance rebirth of art and literature and the revolutionary days of the eighteenth centrury. Juniors focused on U.S. History. Ed Winberg's students came on strong with "Colonial Life" reports. Maybe seniors didn't vote, but at least they learned something about the law through trips every Wednesday to Municipal Court.

Twenty-nine classes of History and Government were offered this year. History was mandatory for Freshmen and Juniors. Seniors couldn't graduate without Government. Lectures required notes, notes were the basic for essays and even graded notebooks! The art of writing a term paper was also taught in every History Class.

The gross laws of Hammurabi, kept the attention of most Freshmen. They included whacking off parts of the body to develop man's sense of law and order. Juniors on the other hand fell into historical politcal traps, when they simulated the Constitutional Convention and argued over how to equally represent all citizens. Every Senior learned to take notes on the "pearls of wisdom" from guest speakers like the Vice-Mayor, Rich Sherratt, and the Current City-Manager, Bruce Rupp.

Limit of a Function Hardest Math Concept in Student Learning

The fact that we live in a world of numbers was clearly illustrated by the enrollment in math. Of the 1116 students at Encinal, 772 of these were in a math class. One nice thing about the math department was that all full time mathematicians taught some form of advanced math; either algebra or geometry.

Our students filled the classes to capacity. Out of curiosity the Horizon asked our resident mathematicians what exactly was the easiest and the hardest concept for students to grasp. The answer was suprising. Trig functions were easiest for students to pick up and understand although, Ed Boughton, speaking for the math department, said no one knew why they were so easy for most studnets. On the other hand the hardest concept was found in math analysis; it was the limit of a function.

All math students were attempting to master math because they knew their futures depended on a solid math background.

English Means Plays, Contests and Debates

Freshmen or senior, both studied Shakespeare. Freshmen learned of life, love, and tragic misfortune through Romeo and Juliet. King Arthur stirred the memory banks of seniors who ventured into learning about the Medieval and Elizabethan worlds.

On the unconventional side, dramatic scenes were acted out by juniors; they attempted to portray witches and judges in The Crucible. More conventionally, they analyzed Puritan religious principles of sin and punishment in The Scarlet Letter.

Sophomores learned to cuss in mythological Greek when they hurled the phrase, "By Zeus." Their reading ranged from the epic poem The Odyssey to Cry The Beloved/ Country, which gave them an outlook on South African life.

Fifty juniors and seniors enrolled in the increasingly popular Public Speaking classes. There, students wrote and practiced speeches in preparation for contests against students of other schools. They debated current controversial subjects: should minors be tried as adults in serious crimes and the abortion issue.

R & P Tops the List of Library Uses for EHS Mind-expanders

R & D, otherwise called research and development, was the sign of a good business. R & P known as research and projects, was the mark of students who used the library for term papers, reports and other assorted assignments. The more than 15,000 books in the library helped the authors of such exciting term papers as: "The Comparative Analysis of Artillery Firepower in the Second Battle of Savannah."

Mr. Robinson's audible articulators of the English language were video taped during the year. Forensically inclined students truely benefited from seeing themselves in action just as others saw them.

The reading tastes of students varied. For those into the body beautiful, the Teen Age Body Book was appealing. Too Young Too Die impressed those who read it with the seriousness of teen suicide. The library really had something for everyone.

Wow! French Pictures and Gambling Really Teach Language Skills

Flamenco dancers, gambling-of-sorts called Lo Tengo, and French pictures were part of the linguistic year for EHS students. For those students who desired more out of life than an acquaintance with the Spanish language that was limited to "taco, burrito," and "ole," the Spanish teachers obliged. For those who wanted the gamey life, all Spanish classes indulged in the mild form of gambeling, as one waited for a winning number to be called, in order to shout out "Lo Tengo" or "Bingo" for those who study only American-ese. For those who wanted a more vibrant and volitle form of Spanish there was a trip to San Francisco where the partisans of "castanet clapping" and "ole shouting" were able to indulge themselves in a Flamenco dance performance.

Over 300 students steeped themselves in such Spanish passtimes and at the same time in twelve classes they learned to use the language in everyday conversations thanks to Betty Rice, Olan Lewis, and their newest teacher Kerri Spaulding.

For those who preferred "Ou-la-la" and "Voulez vous" there were five French classes presided over by Monsieur Glen Fong. Although the Francophiles did not get to see a performance of the "Can-Can" they were visually entertained, on occasions, with movies of France and slides taken by Monsieur Fong on his sojurns "la belle in France" with his wife and some Encinal students of the past. Some of the 126 students in French expected the "cultural" slides to include the Follies Bergiere and the racy spa's of the Riviera, however they settled for the Arc de Triomphe and the Palace of Versailles.

Conquest of Learning Disabilities Is the Aim of "Learning Center"

Classes called "English as a Second Language" and "The Learning Center" were designed to help the students with learning disabilities. Their job was to help students conquer reading, writing and speaking english difficulties.

In E.S.L., Keri Spaulding, a first year teacher, tried some new approaches with her thirty students. They used their bodies to act our commands given them and to mimic everything they heard her say. Most of these students came to the U.S.A less than a year ago from countries scattered over the world. Vietnam, Mexico, Philippines and Cuba represented the students heritage.

The Learning Center itself aimed at student educational disabilities. Five advisors: Earne Ellis, Carol Haynes, Pat Pedersen and aides Sherri Kramer, and Brenda Frenchwood let the fifty-six students devise their own lesson plan once-a-week. This student lesson zeroed in on what students felt they needed most. This included; working with arithmatic flash cards, vocabulary that was needed to know for obtaining jobs and creating short stories to improve writing ability.

Office Skills: a Big Demand in the Business World

Once upon a time the Business Department featured facinating typing phrases like: Now is the time for the quick brown fox to come to the aid of the country dog. No longer! Teachers: Steve Capling, Barbara Porter, and Raul Ybarra pushed office skills: Word Processing, Typing, Shorthand, and Accounting. The more skill a student had, the higher the salary could be commanded — so they said.

In one year, the enrollment in Word Processing doubled partially because corporations wanted skilled word processors. Much of the class was based on Typing, English, and the ability to work with complicated computers.

As in past years typing drew the most students. Term papers looked better typed and more jobs needed typing skills; as a result 298 Q-W-E-R-T punchers pushed their skills in speed and accuracy.

Homemaking Includes Gourmet Fondues and Fashion Explorations

"How would you like to be invited for dinner and dine on blueberry turnovers, Wakikiki meatballs, cheese fondue, and strawberry shortcake? No Thanks? You refuse? Fear of an "UPSET STOMACH? Very Smart! If you enroll in cooking at E.H.S. you would have made those dishes during the course of the year. The chief cook also known as teacher Cary Cranfill felt that the cheese fondue was the most successful gourmet goodie.

How would you like to be asked to model a bright green plaid skirt, and aqua flowered peasant top and an orange sash? Sound pretty repulsive? Wouldn't be caught dead in it? Very Smart! If you consulted the head seamstress, known as Lorraine Weldon, the supervisor of the sewing classes you would have heard that the girls concentrated on ruffled demin skirts, rayon blouses and blazers.

The 54 beginners and 22 advanced students learned sewing, the care, buying and content of materials. Advanced students even had the chance to explore care careers in the Fashion Industry.

A.U.S.D. Personnel, Local Industry Aid Super Furniture Projects

In mechanical drawing the beginning and advanced classes were packed with students. Everything from nuts and bolts to house plans were created by future architects and engineers.

In metal everyone wanted to learn arc and Aceteline welding.

In a few years the tone of woodworking-cabinetry changed as students in '79-80 learned to build scale models, framed houses, and furniture. These interests led some students to take a second and even third year in woodworking.

Cabinet making from the drawing board plans of '79-80 turned into a jewelry cabinet 8″ × 6″ × 5″ deep. A full sized cabinet 21″ × 14″ × 12″ or larger was developed by students depending on their needs or ambitions. The projects were in semi-final stages of completion when photographed by the yearbook. All the materials for these furniture projects was donated by AUSD personnel and local industry.

Fledgling daVincis and Future Artistic Masters Use Tons of Art Supplies.

Crafts I and II, Drawing and Sculpture, Mechanical Drawing, Arts and Crafts, were the six classes offered for the creative talents of students. Six hundred students filled these instructional offerings. Jewelry making was one craft perfected by seventy six students. They made sculptures of pewter, and rings of copper and silver. Future architects and engineers learned the trade secrets of draftsmen in Mechanical Drawing. George Reed retired last year, so Eugene Ford and Olan Lewis had a chance to teach this favorite of ninety-eight students. Drawing occupied five periods of Mary Ellen Nicosia's time and the 135 fledgling daVinci occupied any spare moments she had. The favorite type of drawing was graphic drawing because they were able to use their imagination.

In order to keep the department running Eugene Ford, the department head, figured the school district purchased two tons of clay, 475 brushes, and 6002 pounds of paint.

Cosmetology Has "Madge" Mimics

Two hundred classroom hours of cosmetological fundamentals and theory were needed to initiate the freshman student into the world of cosmetology. It was one of the many classes offered by the Regional Occupational Program funded by the state.

For the next 1400 hours, Monday through Saturday, and on school holidays future cosmetolgists jammed the floors of the Alameda Beauty College between 8:00 am to 12:00 pm or from 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm where they put the theory and fundamentals into practice.

Hair was snipped, curled, colored, and streaked. Fingernails were made elegant by manicures which included soaking fingernails in soapy water, cutting cuticles, and applying fingernail polish just like Madge the Manicurist on television who soaked fingers in the famous Palmolive.

Drive: Learn of Blood and Gore and Cleaning Cars

Older Freshmen and younger Sophomores had one thing in common, they had reached the magic age of fifteen and a half and signed up for Driver Education. It was five classes for five weeks this year.

Thirty hours of instruction featured everything from driving techniques and tests to blood and gore movies.

To drive also meant you kept the car clean and you learned about motors.

No Discrimination, P.E. Demolishes Title IX in Tough Tests

Title IX took gas! Discrimination ruled. PE changed but didn't change; after all the law is the law. What seemed like violations of the law were not. Freshmen girls were separated from freshmen males; however, Juniors and Seniors continued to mix male and female on the playing fields of Encinal.

PE testing pulled many muscles including the mouthed opinions of such tests. Pull ups and sit ups tested the triceps and biceps and toughened-up those abdominal walls. The six minute run was attempted by everyone, the boys in PE liked the standing broad jump best.

Two ROTC Special Events Make the Year Memorable

One of the ideas stressed in JROTC was being able to take command in an emergency. This training was put to use when Sargent Roger Wallace had a heart attack in December. Sargent Cal Honda filled in for Wallace and the classes continued.

The Drill Team marched and performed their complex routines in the Veterens Day Parade. They were so good, they brought home a trophy.

In the 1981 Heritage Day Competition our JROTC Drill Team took second place in their category and won the first of their five for the year.

ERA was a reality for Encinal in 81 "Females Rule" could have been the slogan as Mary Drost became JROTC's Batallion Commander. She also commanded the drill team.

Two special events made the year memorable. First, University of California-Campus, Berkley was the site of the November field trip. There the cadets repelled off the Memorial Stadium with 6 college types also in ROTC. Secondly, the Alameda Naval Air Station sponsored a helicopter ride over Alameda for JROTC Members.

Sing Baby Sing, Meet High Standards and Advance to Choir

The drums go bang and the symbols clang but over all that noise one could hear "Me, Me, Mee,Mee and "Oau, Oau, Oau," as vocal chords unlimbered.

Fourth period choir with thirty-eight advanced singers sent their silver sounds to those who attended Founders day for P.T.A. and The Spring Concert. At Christmas time they gave joy to the world when they concertized in convalescent homes..

Fifth period, otherwise known as the twenty-two novices, or mixed chorus spent all their time learning to sing well enough to meet Lucy Kinchen's high standards.

Because music was such an intregal part of some students life, they took both classes and hummed happily for a couple of hours daily.

On and Off Campus Jazz Sounds Fill the Air With Music

Students with an ear for rhythm and music applied their talents in Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Band II.

Jazz Band II prepared musicians for the more experienced Jazz Ensemble. Conductor Jim Hewitt taught both courses and stressed the individual to apply 100% of himself to music.

The first fifteen minutes of each day, mode exercises and seventh chords were basics that warmed-up musicians and instruments. The blues, dixie land, and contemporary jazz were practiced in preparation for concerts. Often in Jazz Ensemble a musician cued by Conductor Hewitt soloed. Off the top of his head, the musician improvised and created the solo.

The November concert featured both bands. Soloist in Jazz Band II were Priscilla Tuazon, saxophone. Ray Tuazon, trumpet; and Eddie Niiya, saxophone. Jazz Ensemble solos were given by: Steve Gary, guitar; Anthony Harris, trombone; Steve Schroedor, tenor saxophone and Mike Lee and Jeff Oh, trumpets.

In December away from school, the Jazz Ensemble played on the Naval Air Station at the "Crow's Nest," a V.I.P. lounge for Naval officers waiting for a flight.

Parades and Games Night or Day, Music by Our Marching Band

Clarinets, drums, flutes, saxophones, trumpets and tubas played well produced the sounds of the Encinal Marching Band. Not only did the forty-six musicians play well, they also strutted their stuff in complicated routines as they seranaded the crowds at football games, parades, and pep rallies. They played at night games, day games, lunchtimes, and even gave up Saturdays to parade and play. The annual Veterans Day parade on November 11th was in Hayward this year our band was, as usual, one of the parades major music-makers. They took second place for their efforts and their flag girls, who added spectacle to the music, also brought home a second place trophy. Even though their uniforms are blue and white the band still played for the St. Patrick's Day Parade. It may be that, Patty Green, our drum majorette, was all the talent needed for those who take the "wearin' of the green" seriously on March 17th.

The newest event the band was involved with was the JROTC Formal Inspecting. For those who attended, the band's martial music made the inspection more enjoyable.

Boogie Down in Sept., "Back in Black" Tell Opening Dance Story

On September 11, the first Friday of the school year, the Student Senate put on the "Opening Dance."

From 8:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. the dance was packed with friends and classmates who caught up on summer activities, the awful classes they were stuck in, and the latest gossip.

They also "boogied down" to such songs as "Burn Rubber On Me" by the Gap Band and "Back in Black" by AC/DC.

As usual, the Student Senate's price for the dance was free with a student body card or $3.50 without. Since $3.50 was the price of a student body card, the Senate sold a few cards and the students got a two-for-one deal.

Senuous Sensabaough was the DJ of the night. He spun the sounds that kept a crowd of three hundred dancin'.

When it was over, the A.S.E.H.S. Senate was richer by at least $900.

Quick Wealth Dreams Vanish When Students Earn Minimum Wage

At least twenty students held summer jobs. Betty Wong found her job ay Burger King through word of mouth. Doug Rivard's job at Long's Drug Store developed through a merchandising class. Other jobs in retail sales covered everything from clothes to plants.

Several members of Encinal's Swim Team volunteered their time and worked for the Park and Recreation Department at the city swim center.

During the school year the work week averaged twenty hours; however, during summer working hours zoomed to thirty-five or forty weekly. Earnings, although not at a corporate Vice President's level, did meet minimum wage of $3.35 an hour. At that rate of pay, dreams of quick wealth remained dreams.

Reasons for working were varied; they included experience, support of a car, and a taste for high fashion clothes. Some worked to save money for college expenses.

Employee discounts and meeting new people were the best part of any job the students said.

Senior's Drama Nearly Canceled

Seniors thought the production of "Smiling Through" was an artistic success even though it did not leave the class coffers wallowing in money; however, $400 profit was better than no profit at all.

The play was presented to three appreciative audiences on October 21, 22, 23 for the small admission price of $2.00, or for students with student body cards, $1.00.

This was the play that almost never made it to final production. The original director, John Cotter, was replaced by Janice Larson three weeks before opening night. "Understanding" and "great" were the terms used by the cast to describe her direction and management of the play.

Excerpts From English Compositions Made U

The series of stories included in this layout began last fall as a composition for English 3. The fascination about our ancestors and parents immigration to America is, even today, fascinating, personal reading, and hardly dull dry history. Although no one students writing has been identified, the excerpts included detail from the stories behind all Americans as written by many current juniors.

When my father was three his parents moved to California in search of work and left my father with his Finnish grandparents on their farm in the miniscule town of Weldon, Colorado, populated by some 105 people. Since there were no kids living nearby, he became his grandfathers "buddy," following him around all day long, riding on plows and hay wagons. He picked up some Finnish words and even spoke with a slight accent but that soon wore off when he moved.

Around twelve he became an expert at making black gunpowder. Through chemistry he decided to become the chemical engineer he is now.

My mother was born in Tokyo, Japan a few years before World War II. She was very young when the war started, but she remembers some of the terrible events of the war. Behind my mother's home was a bomb shelter where she used to stay during air raids by American bombers on Tokyo.

My mom remembers some of the U.S. soldiers because they sometimes gave her gum and candy. The only candy in Japan at the time was the candy issued to the Americans.

When my dad was five, his father, a German soldier, went to war on the Russian front in World War II. My dad's mother died and his father was taken prisoner by the Russians. Alone, my father who was six and his thirteen year old brother journeyed across Europe to West Germany, unaware of the dangers of such travel, when they received indefinte word that their father was to be released from POW camp.

Realize There Are Stories Behind All Americans

When he was my age he attended a boarding school, located on the site of a historic fort, over looking the small town of Greyier in central India. The subjects my father studied included algebra, geometry, physics, chemistry, physiology, and geography. In addition he had to learn two languages. In order to pass these classes the student were required to pass an exam, graded on the British Grading System.

My grandmother was helping in a Jewish home in Russia when some Russian peasants gathered in the front of the house carrying torches and shouting threats to the Jewish family. The mob dragged the family from their home as they torched the house. This experience made her realize the bleak Russian existence was not for her. There were so many hates, prejudices, fears, and poverty she decided to leave. Her father was a German watchmaker and as a result of his profesion her family lived far better than the common Russian. The Russian people ostracized foreign technicians and used them as scapegoats for the problems that beset the Russians. Her family lived separated from all the Russians and this separation and the intolerance of her father were factors in the desire to leave and come to America.

My father was twenty-one and in Engineering school in Hong Kong when he married my nineteen year old mother. For fourteen years they lived in a one room apartment in Hong Kong. My parents have broken a chain of customs and cultural laws of a "Villagers" life, the most common of which was living on that land on which you were born. Actually, they have only made a move; their ancestors had lived in China, and now their descendants would live in a new land. With them forever is that part of China which they own and will value forever.

Assemblies Score With a Killer of a Show: MU-Sign

Traditional Thursday Assemblies were a break for students from the usual class routine. The usual school stuff preceeded each assembly; the pledge, the officers reports, and an occasional skit. The usual behavior of some followed the same pre-set patterns; the crude and rude jeered and threw pennies to the disgust of most students.

The 82nd Airborn Division Choir from Fort Bragg, North Carolina sang, Bob Sarlatte cracked jokes but he sounded like his Waffle-O Bill commercials on TV. The spirit assembly left a lot to be desired and the annual Christmas show was cancelled.

The Outstanding assembly was MU-SIGN". Some leadership class members spent a week with the handicapped and returned to school with tales of the greatest dancers they had ever seen. Convinced, leadership hired MU-SIGN, a troop of audio handicapped dancers who turned Devo's music, nostalgia 50's tunes, like "Tequilla" and "Rock Around the Clock" into the most FANTASTIC, OUTSTANDING, AWESOME KILLER of a SHOW.

Blood and Gore, No! A Worthy Cause, Yes!

Blood and gore it was not, a humanitarian blood drive it was! For the fourth consecutive year, EHS students, parents, and friends marched into the career center, laid down, were punctured by qualified experts and watched as their blood filled a little plastic bag and gave the promise of life to someone else at a desperate hour.

"Operation Relay", which was the high school donation program, came to EHS on Octover 21, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. In that six hour period of the drive, ninety-six people came into the career center to donate blood. Seventeen year old donators had written parent permission. Ten people were unable to donate for various reasons, newly pierced ears, a recent illness, or iron deficiency. Many students were surprised to learn iron deficiency tests were necessary before one was allowed to donate blood.

Cookies and juice were served by the blood drive staff to all donators during their rest.

Soph's Score With Great Dance Called "Come as you Are"

He was the most expensive DJ in the school's history and he was worth it. The Sophomores hired Nick Harper of station KSOL to spin the sounds of music on Oct. 16, 1981 for their Soph Hop. They paid Nick Harper $375 and he was worth it for two reasons: First he did play music to dance by; secondly he generated a crowd of over 300 who paid $3.00 apiece if they had a student body card.

After the dance the Soph's laughed all the way to the bank as they deposited 34 profit. "Come As You Are", started at 8 p.m. and ended at 11 p.m. Many students felt that the secret that made Nick Harper such a good DJ was his easy mix of punk rock, soul, and rock.

Three New Clubs Add Variety to EHS

Everyone has heard of golf pros, but Encinal had a cube pro. The Rubik's Cube club formed in the fall and Lucy Boersma was the cube pro. Cube lovers united and helped each other solve the cube in improved, faster times.

On the serious side the Science club was reconstituted. Althouth young Dr. Jeckels and Mr. Hydes were not sought as members, the young scientists demanded and received a scientific presentation or project as the first step in becoming an official member. In the past few years, membership declined in the Asian Club, The Black Student Union, and the Filipino Student Union. As a result, all three clubs merged, and the Multi-cultural club was born. One thing did not change to the relief of most students. Thus after school lumpia sales continued.

Traditional Clubs Still Going Strong

Traditional EHS clubs logged another year. The Model UN celebrated its twenty sixth year as a school club. Its members became instant diplomats and represented foreign nations at selected conferences. The world's oldest known game continued to survive in the hands of the future chess masters. Although the pawn pushers belonged to the Alameda County Chess League, they concentrated on building excellent players rather than league scores.

The greatest and earliest winter snow fall in years coated the Sierra's to the delight of the 90 member Ski club. Up and on their way by 4:30 a.m., the skiers hit the Sugar Bowl, and Kirkwood slopes early and returned home very late.

The youngest of the clubs did what its name implied. The members traveled. They enjoyed gothic Grace's Cathedral and munched their way through Ghiredelli Square.

Fund-Raisers: The Back-Bone of Club's Finances

Garage sales, Car washes, candy sales and paper drives were the most popular fund raisers for EHS clubs. Work-a-thons were the mainstay of Close-Up Club members. In their efforts to raise $800 each and finance a trip to Washington D.C. Thirteen Close-Up'ers made it to our nations capital for six days where they toured the halls of Congress, visited Congressman Stark, and did the Smithsonian museum.

The main entry of school became a greenhouse twice as Future Farmers of America sold plants. They were so successful with their sale of greens they banked $400. Some of that money was earmarked for future festivities; like a trip to Great America.

The Key Club really served the community well. Mike Cho and his key people collected canned goods for the needy at Christmas. Later they helped the Local March of Dimes Walk-a-thon.

Senior's Winterball "Precious Time" Has Everything but Profit

Boutonnier, corsages, and dancing under hearts and stars were highlights of the Winterball. "Precious Time" started at 8:00 p.m. and ended all too quickly at 11:00 p.m. The beat of the band "Fragile" set the feet of some forty couples a-dancin!

The decorations included streamers, balloons, parachutes from the ceiling and greenery around the room.

The dance was a spectacular social event but a financial disaster. Senior consensus felt that priced bands killed attendance as hiring "Fragile" up the cost of the bids to $12 a couple. The school's American flag was taken and the class stopped payment on Fragiles bill until it was returned. The flag was home the Tuesday after the dance.

Red Senior Greeks Win Spirit Trophy

Red Greeks and Yellow Cowboys paraded down the halls of staid old Encinal. Behind them raced Green Jocks and Orange Crazies. If the general public had entered school on Nov. 12th, they would have said "School was never like this in my day!" But then it was theme day for the 1982 Spirit Week, Spirit spilled over into decorating the class halls. The seniors even had Greek pillars, although they were white not red! The juniors made the second floor hall into Tombstone City with a poster that laid to rest the big game opponents in appropriate style. Sophomore hall was called "Camp Granada" and had great decorations. Unfortunatly some sophs were lame enough to wreck the freshman hall and as a result the class lost the hall decoration to the frosh from penalty points.

The great mess came due to rain. The noon activities switched from the front lawn to the gym. People pyramids built on those who rested on lawns were more stable than those on wooden floors because those on top thought that hitting the floor would hurt more than hitting the grass.

Spirit week ended with blue and white day. Seniors won 1st place trophy, the skys poured rain and the score was 7-zip.

Homecoming: Royalty Chosen, Awesome Football, Hot Dance

Homecoming festivities took place, October 26th. Senior girls and guys nominated thirteen for King and thirteen for Queen. Ten finalist were chosen; Celeste Ramos, Linda Bradford, Cheryl Wisdorf, Laura Gallagher, Mary Drost, Kenny Banks, Tony Taplin, Mike Lee, Marty Newton, Jose Nunez.

On November the 13th, Spirit Assembly highlight was the moment Linda Bradford and Jose Nunez were crowned King and Queen.

Female nominees received a dozen roses and the males received boutonnieres. Cheryl Wisdorf and Tony Taplin were 4th runner up, Celeste Ramos and Mike Lee were 3rd, Laura Gallagher and Kenny Banks were 2nd, and Mary Drost and Marty Newton were the 1st runner ups.

After the assembly the "BIGGAME" was played in a mud bowl, quagmire-in slippery oozing mud and constant rain, the 27th game between EHS and AHS.

In the last five minutes QB Barry Kruse threw two passes that almost changed the game — NEXT YEAR! From 8 to 11, that evening "Sensuous" Senssabaugh played the platters, flipped the disks, and made music for a still fired up Homecoming crowd. We may have lost the game but our JET Spirit was as high as ever.

27th Big Game Has 7-0 Score In Sea of Mud

Everyone has heard of the Rose Bowl, the Superbowl and the Probowl. We had our own bowl on November 13th. It was the MUD BOWL.

Actually it was the 27th renewal of the EHS —AHS rivalry. Tony Taplin and Mike Lee held the honors for EHS rushing. QB Barry Kruse threw two passes in the last five minutes that almost changed the outcome of the game. John Levingston, who scored against Alameda in the last two big games, was Kruse's target; however, an Alameda safety deflected what could have been the TD.

Statistics revealed that the quagmire called Thompson Field was so bad that both teams totaled 11 first downs between them in the game.

Dirty Cars and Candy Bring in the Profits for the Student Body

The cleanest cars in Alameda left student carwashes held in various gas stations. Carwashes were the most profitable and popular fundraisers of the year. Students found them pure profit because student labor and donations of buckets, towels and soap were the only materials needed.

The Spanish and French clubs both profited from the old familiar candy sale. Students ladened with Snickers, M & M's and suckers were a common sight. The Spanish club achieved an extraordinary profit of over $400.

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors gave dances as major fundraisers. The Soph Hop turned out to be the most profitable; it netted $834.

A different type of fundraiser was the Plant Sale sponsored by the Future Farmers of America. Many types of small potted ferns and Flowers were sold for as little as 25¢.

Students worked toward some goal, whether it was the Senior Prom or a field trip to a Cultural Fair. As a result, fundraisers were a necessity for every class and club.

Oct: Halloween Spirits
Nov: Turkey Treats

Halloween meant different things to different people. For some it was a chance to share treats. For others it was a chance for fantasy; they dressed as witches, goblins, and clowns. Only the more daring and imaginative students and faculty appeared in costumes on Oct. 30. The costumes puzzeled no-one for they picked up on the Rubic Cube Craze.

Rumor said some Encinal "spirits" were seen in an open truck on the freeway to and from Great America — it was a night for fun!

Thanksgiving reaffirmed Americas strengths as well as reacquainted some students with "Old Aunt Maudie" from Oshkosh, as families joined together for the feast of stuffed turkey.

Great Christmas Gifts Include a New BMW Car and the Usual New Socks

Christmas vacation freed everyone from school with cheers and glad tidings, but let them loose in the stores. The big spenders from Encinal purchased presents for mothers and brothers, grannies and uncles, and friends and cousins. Interestingly enough, our survey revaled that more students bought sweaters as gifts more than any other item of clothing. Tapes, albums, and shirts were also high on the lists.

One student bought his brother a new BMW — (model, of course!) Another student played Lady Bountiful and bought her brother a new pair of cross country skis.

At school, the Christmas Season started immediately after Thanksgiving when our traditional twelve foot Christmas Tree arrived. The 8th Annual E.H.S. Christmas Faire took place on December 5th. For the eighth year in a row, the Filipino Students raked in bundles of cash as everybody bought lumpia and more lumpia . . . However, competition featured won-tons, cakes, and candy. Some campus wits said the annual event should be renamed "The Food Faire".

1981 was remembered as the year of no Christmas Assembly, the cancellation of the assembly saddened the students quite a bit. It was he first time in the history of Encinal High School that there was no annual Christmas Program. It never jelled and neither parents, students or teachers were able to see and hear some special holiday entertainment.

Foods, Gifts, Music Special Guests Mark 7th Christmas Faire

The 7th Annual Christmas Faire came to the EHS gym on December 5 from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. in the afternoon.

The faire was open to students and the community. An estimated 350 people visited the twentyfive booths of merchants and students clubs. The Seniors finally sold out their four year old T-Shirts. The Juniors lost twenty dollars on hot dogs. The Freshmen and Sophomores skipped booths in the faire.

Entertainment provided by EHS band members filled the gym-faire with "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and other favorite carols. Our ROTC Drill team presented precision execution of drills on stage as additional entertainment. Most people felt the best entertainment was walking around the faire, seeing friends, and soaking up joys of Christmas.

For the 5th year, the Student Senate invited patients from Shoreline Convalescent Home as their special guests. Senate paid for all their food and senators spent time wheeling the people around the faire. Students said that giving time for the patients was one of the best parts of enjoying the faire.

Munch Out Time Can Be Anytime or Place, Not Only Lunch Hour

Students enjoyed lunchtime because of their various activities, some even enjoyed it because of the available food. What was beyond eating? Answer: Meeting! As a matter of fact, students munched out during club, class, and other meetings.

Activities centered on front lawn competitions included football, frisbee, or, for the less athletically inclined — talking! The cafeteria had everything from pasta to burgers. The most popular new food for the cafeteria was pizza-bread. Students who had wheels and a tank full of gas went to McDonalds, Burger King, or Sandwich Board. Students objected to the price hike in box-lunches, which made them inflationary one dollar apiece.

Bigamy in the Month of March at Encinal

$700.00 was pulled in at the door for the Senior Class funds. Deducting the expenses for the DJ, (the Flee), Nick Cabral, and a Alameda Police Officer, (as guards), and the payment for the wedding bands, the Sadie Hawkins dance was still a success with a profit of $450.00.

At .25¢ a marriage, the marriage booth was full every minute of the three hour dance. Shannon Graham took first place in the marriage marathon with six weddings. 120 marriages were performed but not one divorce. Bigamy must have been big in March. Every couple received two rings, and a marriage license.

The music was a mixture of Rock, Soul and Punk Rock. The floor was filled with crowds of dancers during every song.

Junior Varsity Football Captures ACAL Championship

The EHS J.V. Football team, lead by Coach Mark Ironside and Don Grant, captured this year's ACAL Championship with an impressive season record of 7-1-1. Team work, vigorous practices, dedication and defense were the key to success against tough opponents like San Leandro, Piedmont, and Logan High.

The team was composed of 19 Sophomores and 5 Juniors. Todd Richey, Derik Nereu, and Robert Lyle were some of the outstanding players for the team. Coach Mark Ironside believed that the team will be the future champs next year.

The Frosh-Soph was hindered throughout the season with injuries, drop-outs, and inexperienced players which resulted in 1-5-1 season record. The coaches, Roger Young and Ed Arujo, were mainly concerned with building an experienced team and teaching the art of Football.

Jets Take A.C.A.L. Second Place in Season Featuring Much Offensive Running

1981 was a 5-3-1 season. Our running game scrambled right through opponents lines for 1172 yards, an average of 130.2 yards per game. Passing for Encinal fell on the accurate arm of junior, Barry Kruse who replaced injured starting Q.B. Jerry Hearne. 406 yards through the air for the season converted to 50.7 yards per game; a statistic that was not too shabby.

Player Joe Seiss anchored the line and was recognized as outstanding lineman by the Oakland Tribune. Mike Lee, J. Livingston, and Tony Taplin were Encinal's outstanding backs.

At the end of the season only 67 points were tallied against the "Jets;" a statistic that converts to 7.4 points a game. Piedmont won the league, but Encinal was second and that wasn't too shabby either.

Twenty-Two Member Cross Country Team Takes Second in ACAL

It was a rewarding season from September to November for the Boys and Girls' Cross-Country teams coached by Joe King. Although the coach didn't believe in stretching exercises, everyone did them. It was a common sight to see about twenty runners stretching, bending, and nearly placing their nose on their toes for about ten minutes daily.

The twenty-two runners covered four to five miles every day. One benefit of the conditioning was a second place finish in ACAL behind their toughest opponent and league leader, Piedmont.

The seven member girls team went to the Division Meet where they placed fourth and qualified them for the Meet of Champions. Alex Lopez and Jennifer Thatcher were voted most valuable runners, and Greg Matthews and Missy Johnson were most improved. Other awards went to George Wenceslao and Karen Gee as the most dedicated runners, and Russell Hunter received the coaches award.

Talented Team With Misleading Record New Coach and Drill

Shouted commands, "I GOT IT!", "MINE", "ME!" prevented head on collisons between volleyball players at daily practices.

Coach Maria Phraner tamed sixteen girls into a Varsity and Junior Varsity volleyball teams. Practices included running laps in the gym followed by calisthenics. Players concentrated on the individual skills with bump, set, spike drills. A joint practice with Notre Dame combined all the skills in a "W" drill which required speed, skill and stamina.

James Turintine aided the Varsity in their last three games of the season. The team responded to his coaching by breaking their losing streak.

The Varsity team had a 5-14 record highlighted by a Victory against rival Alameda. The J.V. ended with a 7-7 record.

At the awards dinner, Captain Mary Drost was named Most Valuable Player and Paula Sebesta, Most Inspirational. Both teams presented Coach Maria Phraner a Nike sweatshirt.

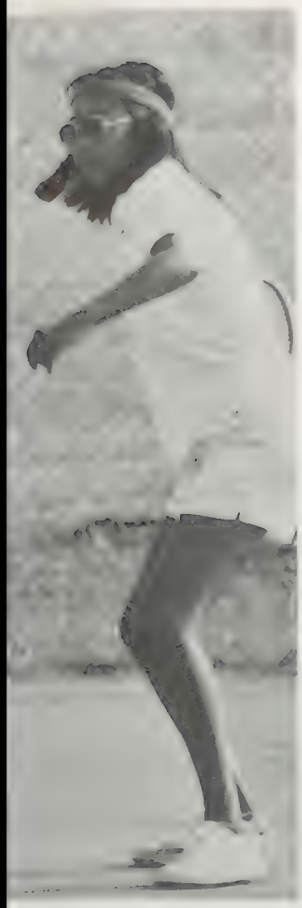
Super-Spectacular Year Brings Encinal Another Championship for Girls' Tennis



Spectacular, that was the word for Anna Korling's coaching of the Girls' Tennis team.

12 wins and 1 loss was the racquet swingers best ever record. Caroline Yao never lost a match all year long and she defended and kept her ACAL Championship for the second year. The Oakland Tribune called Caroline Athlete of the Year, Marla Miyashero and Caroline Villaflor took the doubles crown and first place from Alameda.

At the annual awards dinner Caroline Yao received the Most Valuable award, Lynn Vaduya for Most Improved, and Bonnie Espino for Most Inspirational. Placing first in the ACAL League the whole team received Champion Stars.

With only three Seniors on this year's team, the 1982 tennis squad promises a champion team in the next season just as they were this last year.

Speed, Quickness Help Jets Capture, ACAL Championship

The Girls Varsity Basketball Team captured the first Alameda County Athletic League title in the four year history of the program at EHS. Speed, quickness and hours of practice were the backbone of the team's success. Two juniors, three sophomores and six seniors were drilled by Coach Nolan Darnell on fundamentals and plays.

Their pre-season was slow with 6 wins and 4 losses. They improved gradually and captured the league round robin title with 10 wins and 2 losses, earning the play-off point. After losing to Pacific in the championship playoffs, the Jets were forced to use their extra point to come back and defeat the four champion Vikings.

Annette Scott and Vielka Oristil earned All-League honors. Sheri Cannon and Vycelka Oristil received honorable mention.

The Junior Varsity squad, coached by Col. Bud Dixon, also took first place with ten wins and two losses.

Varsity Basketball Posts 18-4 Season but Builds Nucleus of 1982 Squad

To paraphrase Charles Dickens, it wasn't the worst of seasons either. Varsity Basketball wound up with 18 loss-4 victory season which certainly wasn't the best record ever posed by a "Jet" team. Looking back only one player returned to the squad from last year's team and the lack of experience plagued the players all season.

There were some high points in the Varsity season. First, David Lomba proved to be the most consistant player as well as the highest scorer as he piled up 288 points and was honored as all A.C.A.L. PLAYERS. The "slamming duo" of E.H.S. turned out to be Pat Rose and John Livingston; John walked off with rebounding honors and an honorable mention in all A.C.A.L.

The most memorable game was the toughest of the year as the Varsity took on Albany's cougars and beat them and also scored their greatest number of points for the year.

The real plus for this season was the experience and training received by Marcus Aguilar, Gary Mann, Bras Rivas, and Pat Rose who will form the nucleus of the '82 squad.

Basketball: JV Style, Few Victories, Many Losses, Great Effort!

Highlight for the J.V. Basketball hoopsters was the first victory over cross town rivals: Alameda. During their season, the cagers won seven of their games and lost nineteen.

Damon Marks was their top scorer with 190 points for the year; John Roberts was right behind Damon with 183 points scored.

Rebounds and assists were another big category in basketball and again Damon and John had the most rebounds and assists — 97 for Damon and 81 for John. Fourteen guys turned out for basketball and the season ended with only 12. Even though the team was small the J.V.'s gave it their all.

Girls' Soccer Takes League 4th, But Has a Very Special Need

The newest sport, Girls' Soccer, had needs. It didn't need a winning season, because the girls won seven, lost six, and tied two. It didn't need a new fine young coach because the girls had him in Mark Ironside. It didn't need an outstanding player transferred from another school because Sandy Davison, from Japan, joined the team. In a day and age of equality among the sexes, it needed an all-male set of cheerleaders and a fan turnout equal to that of the football team.

The January rains and floods cancelled two games. The corner kicks from Sandy Davison to Bernie Kim, Laura Parazin, and Debbie Dao won the December game against Alameda. The goal abilities of Yogie Wadford stopped many opponents' chances for victory.

The twenty-two girls who made up the team felt the fourth place standing in the league was almost awesome for a sport that has only had a two year history at Encinal. If the truth be known, that fourth place was due in part to daily workouts after school from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. plus weekend work outs by a lot of dedicated girls, and a fierce desire to win.

Record Shattering Jet Wrestlers Are Awesome Champions

Varsity wrestlers had their best season record of 10 wins and 0 losses and their best league record of 6 wins and 0 losses. School records were shattered. The varsity had 168 pins for the season, including 26 pins in the El Cerrito tournament. Temple Campbell had 22 pins in one season. In the category of points the mat men ran up the largest duel score in school history as they demolished Richmond by a score of 75 to 0. The team was equally awesome as they scored the most points ever in the El Cerrito Invitational, only 213½!

Turning to ACAL records, they too felt the weight of Jet power. In the ACAL tourney, held at Encinal, the Jets scored the most points ever in league tournaments: 243½. They had the most consecutive individual first place champions: 5; the most second and third place champions: 7; and the most wrestlers scoring places; 13. Finally the Jets sent 12 wrestlers to North Coach section.

Varsity coach Pete Noble and JV coaches Ed Araujo and Rick Nereu felt the Jets were the best they ever coached. Special mention was given to Captains J. C. Nunez and Don Berger, the most valuable wrestler Temple Campbell; the most improved, Dave Vasquez; the most valuable JV, Frank Smith; and the Tommy Trout Award went to Dave Heskett.

Combined Swim Teams Talented Although Small

Success for the boy's and girl's swim team members was not a North Coast Championship. Success was doing your best; lowering your event time; supporting your fellow swimmer; in short, being a genuine competitor. Both teams consisted of all varsity swimmers. Those swimmers who did acceptionally well were Stacy Matthews and Jackie Cohen breaking the minute mark in 100 yd butterfly. Laura Gallagher improving her record from last year, for the girl's team. From the boy's team there was Greg Matthews who placed at the North Coast Championship Meet.

The team captains were Karrie Jones and Laura Gallagher for the girl's and Chrisl Ilde and Alan Yip for the boy's. The drawback of the swimseason was the lack of returning swimmers. There were some new swimmers: Mary Johnson, Jenny Romanoff, Christopher Roke and a new coach Matt Lager.

J. V. & Varsity Baseball: One Season Opens With Less Than a Victory

Beaten by Mt. Diablo, the Boys' Varsity Baseball Team came back in the second game and took Miramonte 4-3. The daily practice on Stargell Field or Washington Park put the ball players in top form.

The dozen returning juniors and seniors included Eddie Groves, Jerry Hearne, Andy Hughes, Gary Mann, Todd Connely, Mike Lee and Don Berger. As the season opened Mike Lee, who swung a mean bat, sported a .633 batting average. Pitchers Groves and Hearne polished up their fast ball and waited for their competitors.

The Junior Varsity Team, coached by Bryan "Bud" Dixon, blasted Mt. Diablo 13-6 to win the season opener. A good infield and powerful batting were the main factors in winning the game. Fred Damsen had the highest batting average with .600, and with his expereince playing first base, barely anyone got on base to score. Sharing the pitching duties were Matt Garner, Jim Anton, Darryl Berlin, Joe Ravey and Tony Babasa.

Softball Players Work Toward Playoff Spot

Six veterans and three rookies made up the starting lineup of the Varsity Softball Team. Coach Dave Johns was forced to cancel the first game due to unpreparedness, but the girls were able to capture their first two games against Fremont and Moreau before dropping the next to Skyline.

During pre-season and league play the team's strength was balanced offense and defense. Julie Van Etten and Tanya Jones lead the team in hitting while 1981 All-Leagers Annette Scott and Deanna Ferris were the nucleus of the defense.

With Softball playoffs for the first time in the Alameda County Athletic League, the girls practiced an average of eight hours a week preparing to earn one of the playoff spots.

Dreaded Whistle Drill Gives Girls a Work-Out and a Half

New Coach Mark Ironside started the girls track team training on February 1, 1982. It was a small team of 25 girls who faced Skyline High School in a practice meet at Merit College on March 4, 1982. They lost 37-44.

Linda Reed, Ramsey Washington, Coach Don Grant and Mark Ironside invented and sprang the whistle drill on the unsuspecting girls. As they ran, a whistle blew every 20 seconds to indicate one hundred and ten yards covered and then the work out continued until four segments were covered (440 yards). The hurdlers learned the dreaded drill first, and eventually the whole team learned it. Don Grant put the sprinters and jumpers thru their paces. Every one worked out if they were on girls track.

School Records Under Attack by Hurdlers and Pole Vault Men

On February first, Coaches Don Grant, Washing Ramsey, and Linda Reid started the Boys' Track Team training schedule. Thirty-six harriers traveled to Merrit College and met the tough, powerful Skyline High team. The score read 37-44 in favor of Skyline.

The Skyline loss set the tempo for determined trackmen. They next took on Freemont and defeated them. They pushed on to the A.C.A.L. relays where they took first place. Albany High then fell to the power of the Jets. In league dual meets the fleet-of-foot proved their superiority in hurdles, discus throw, and pole vaulting.

Two Sophomores starred for our Jets. They were Alex Lopez and Davis Boone who ranked number one and two respective in distance running. Pat Rose added fame for the juniors when he proved his ability in discus throwing and mastering the shot put. The seniors also contributed to the Track season as Tony Taplin "killed" them in the 440. Tom Nelson, by publication time, was close to the school records in the high hurdles and 330 low hurdles, but he was followed closely by Senior Edwin Wade. Anthony Harris aimed at 13 feet in the pole vault; just prior publication he vaulted 12 feet nine inches.

A Promising Season for the Boys' Tennis Team

The 1982 Boys' Tennis team, coached by Alan Rebensdorf, started the season off with four returning lettermen. They were top players Bill Harriman, Rick Daysog, Art Pereyra, and Donald Delmore.

The ten-member Varsity team practiced Mondays and Wednesdays from 2:30-4 and the J.V.'s Tuesdays and Thursdays. The only remaining ACAL teams left were Piedmont, Alameda, and EHS. The five other teams El Cerrito, Berkeley, Pinole Valley, De Anza and Kennedy High School were from other leagues.

Activities Keep Students Busy Outside of Class

Students kept busy outside of class through various activities. Many students took part time jobs at places such as Long's Drugs and Southshore Cinemas where they worked up to twenty hours a week.

On campus there were activities for students during lunch and after school. Cultural language, and service clubs held weekly lunch hour meetings. Class meetings were held weekly to discuss upcoming fundraisers; the most popular were car washes. After school there were eleven different teams for boys and girls to join. The responsibility of drawing up a calender of activities was taken on by the Leadership class.

Freshmen Places 3rd in School Week Competition

The wide-eyed Freshman Class came into Encinal with expectations of big football games, dances and dates on the weekend.

The enthusiastic Class of '85 ignored the ridicule and the name calling from the upperclassmen and took third place in the Spirit Week competition which humbled the Sophomores.

In order to raise funds, the Freshman Class held some car washes and candy sales. To boost the morale of the newcomers, some Freshmen got together and organized poster parties.

Class of 1984 Breaks the Bank With Over $1300

The money hungry class of 1984 had an early lead toward a financially secure senior year. Their bank roll doubled in size, due to major fundraisers. KSOL's Nick Harper was featured at their Soph Hop, which brought $334. By the end of the year the class was rolling in wealth with more than $1,300.

Off campus gifted sophomores attended summer classes at U.C. Berkeley through the University Partners program. They included: Tommy Chan, Cathy Cho, Tony Daysog, Robin Elmore, Pam Huie, and Irma Reyes. Students could take up to three classes: English, Math and an Elective; each class 90 minutes long. Some took advanced math and English to prepare for their next school year.

With brains and bucks the sophomore class looked to an even more profitable junior year.

Hot Dogs, Car Wash and Sock Hop Activities — Make Money for Junior Class

Change was the key for understanding the Junior class. Their new advisor Glenn Fong took the reigns of leadership from John Johnson and Betty Murphy. The second great change came when the juniors dropped the policy of joining with the Seniors for a Junior-Senior Ball.

A fall car wash profited the class by $125 and the spring dance, dubbed "The Sock Hop" also added coin of the realm to the junior treasury. Like all groups the juniors won some and lost some, the Christmas Faire booth was a financial disaster of epicproportions. Amazingly enough Hot Dogs were not in favor at the faire, probably due to people eating several tons of German Christmas cookies, French Tortes, lumpia, and won-ton. Some wit said the Christmas Faire slogan for the juniors should have been "Buy American."

$enior Ups & Downs

The stock market's ups and downs paralled the Senior's financial position. They opened the year with a successful Rigatoni Feed that netted over $600 profit. Their play "Smiling Through" earned an additional $425, but the Christmas Faire cost them dearly. The number one signs were not best sellers. The second blow came when the winter ball turned out to be an artistic success but a financial disaster. Recouping their losses the class presented the Sadie Hawkins dance and a flower sale.

Our Visible Booster Club Makes Money on Every Event Held

Boosters were most obvious to students at dances and football games. The most visible boosters were Diana Chambers and Many Kenney; the dynamic duo behind the soft drink counter at every dance. Nick Cabral attended dances in the role of chaperone.

The clubs concession stand at athletic events featured food and drinks. Although the stand was less elaborate than Burger King it made much money.

Other money-makers; a flower arrangement show and the annual wine tasting in April, a real money machine for the club. At year's end the Boosters once again had $2800 for the school athletic department.

How About a Block E for Super-Dedication and Service by "Stats"

Who were all those people on the side lines, behind the score tables, and around the coach? They were the "stats"! They recorded all the information needed in each game or event. Times, distances, yards gained or lost, rebounds and layups were all part of their statistics.

Easy to spot stats carried equipment that ranged from stop watches to starting guns. Each stat worked three hours a week during their sport's season on the average. It must have been fun, for some of the Stats' worked more than one sport. In the final analysis every athelete was dependent on the stats' records — particularly if that athlete hoped to attract recruiters.

Some people were so impressed by the stats that they suggested a speci l Block E be created for the sport of "Stating"!

5-2 Start for Cheerleaders Becomes 2-0 Season

Slim down and shape up may have been a popular concept with many Americans, but who thought it applied to cheerleaders? No one! Yet the Varsity Cheerleaders' year reflected that idea. They started last summer with five girls and two guys.

From July 31 to August 3 the cheerleaders spent their time in Sacramento at Spirit Camp, U.S.A. There they worked on their skills and routines for football season.

When football season ended the two boys on the line became involved in basketball and play rehearsals, and by February, the cheerleaders were down to two girls, Shanon Graham and Gina Newton.

Lack of time was the factor that changed the line. Time to practice, time involved in games, time to do homework, and time to just be yourself.

Time was also involved in fundraising. The girls put hours into their two candy sales. They made a profit over $500. Although the profit sounds great it wasn't that large considering the estimated cost of $250 per uniform each girl had to pay.

No Pom-Pons and Big Expense in Time Tell 1981-2 Pom-Pon Story

Becoming a Pom-pon girl was an expensive proposition in time and money. By April, forty girls practiced routines . . . and hoped to be chosen for the Varsity line. In May six became the 1981-82 Pom-pon girls. Then the girls were faced with the expense of uniforms which ran about $250.

Expenses in time and money came in the form of long practice sessions in Alameda and Santa Cruz. In July the girls motored down to Santa Cruz for a three day workout at Spirit Camp. While camp was costly, the reward was a second place trophy for their routines.

By basketball season the time commitment had decimated the line. Two of the six girls were unable to meet the time requirements and the line shrunk to four. Seven JV Pom-pon girls were at the basketball games and their spirit helped carry-on the season's work.

The most unusual feature of the year was the lack of Pom-pons. For the first time in anyone's memory the Pom-pon girls had no Pom-pons.

Rigatoni Feed Brings in Big $600 for Prom

Garlic in the bread! Garlic in the rigatoni! Pasta, hamburger, sauce and garlic were the ingredients that made the Senior Class Rigatoni Feed enjoyable and profitable. The Seniors decided to have a Rigatoni Feed instead of the traditional Spaghetti Feed.

Thirty Seniors, supervised by John Matula, labored over hot stoves for two and a half hours preparing the rigatoni, bread, and salad for the two hundred expected students and their families. The rigatoni feed was held on Back to School Night, Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1981.

Special guest Wally Haas, owner of the Oakland A's, gave a speech about the success of the A's and how the EHS seniors could do the same.

The seniors earned $600 from the rigatoni feed, which was the first fundraiser of the school year. The profits would pay for the expenses of the Senior Prom.

Students Benefit as Horticulturalists Spruce of Log Area

Horticulturalists manicured, landscaped, and worked on the log area. This little area of natures loveliness was home base for many who craved an occasional cigarette. In the past it had few extras; however, after the brigade from the plant lovers class were finished the log area had two new benches (hand made by students), plus a new tree to replace the one that blew over the super storm that hit Alameda in January.

On a nice day during lunchtime anywhere from fifty to one hundred students wandered over to the logs and visited with friends. The logs served its purpose well, it served the students and it was beautified by students.

Fortunes Spent on Fads and Fashions

It was only money. Eighty to one hundred or even two hundred dollars could be spent on Walkmen I or II mini-stereos. It probably was. Daily more and more students appeared on bikes, skates, or on foot with the little Walkmen earphones. Everywhere one looked a moving-listener was spotted. Some people even had old fashioned headphones. Rubic's cubes were almost as popular as the listening devices but by spring the cube craze had died down.

If you had even more money it could have been spent on clothes. Levi's most famous pants, the good old 501's at 16.97 a pop in one store, gradually replaced super expensive designer jeans. O.P.'s, Nike's, and other specialized clothes came in at hot prices too. Jackets averaged $30 each unless one bought a Members Only for $50.

SENIOR QUOTES

RICK ADAMS: A special thanks to all my friends at E.H.S. for making these past four years a little better for me. Adrian B., Ernie A., Robert H., Lori O., Cindy., Terry G., Lori P., Tracy S., and everyone else "you know who you are." Party Hardy and may the keggers never end!

BRENDA AINSLIE: Special joys, special friends are the things I remember about E.H.S. Thanks [illegible] everyone of you the best of luck in the future. It's been great playing basketball these past four years, and football the past two. The coaches have been great to me. Thank You.

JOHN A. ANDERSON III: My four years were fun at E.H.S. To Ken, we've had a lot of good times and we should always be friends, you too Marty and Darryl. Enjoy yourselves Bob and Dang. You've become a great friend Cindy, remember me Kathy. Hope we stay friends Bonnie. To all of E.H.S. — Have fun everyone.

ERNIE ANDRISE: "We are secrets to each other, each one's life a novel no-one else can read, even joined in bonds of love we're linked to one another by such slender threads." (Rush). Special thanks to A.B., R.A., and everybody. Remember "82" that's US.

RICHARD ARMSTRONG: Wisemen learn more from fools than from the wise; Death is inevitable; the tragedy is not living in your dreams . . . To defend; this is the pact. But when life's gone and damage done — To avenge; this is the pact . . . that's ok, I understand, this ain't no never, never land.

WINNIE C. AU: To all my friends; Everyday is as exciting as the other and there are many pleasant memories in high school. Just be yourself and try your best and God will do the rest! Good luck, I will miss you all.

HERMAN BAMBERGER: I would like to thank my parents for the love and the help of getting me through High School. I hope that they will be with me for years to come. And to the teachers that helped me. Love to my parents from their son HERMAN BAMBERGER. Class of "82."

KENNY BANKS: To my favorite people, John, Marty, Cindy, and (of course) Gina, and to my family, Darrin, John, Mom, and Sid. These years have been super. I'll never forget any of you. I know I'll be seeing a lot more of you. Gina, op dop fobenzie. Love always, Kenny.

DEBI BEAL: Chrystl, Lisa, Cool Zhender — it's us against the world. Life is full of joy and tears. I thank my parents and friends who helped me through it . Scott Cowan, we've grown so much together. You're gonna make it! Our dreams will come true!

MICHAEL MUNROE BEALL: "Life is like a garden, and it's been a pleasure walking through your flowers." Thanks to everyone who made it so nice. Especially you Sabrina. I'll see you all on the other side.

JOY BEIREIS: As we embark, we leave behind good times, bad times, and friends. We must look for a life of our own, the future and the present unknown. My love and [illegible] for seeing me through the years and also to A.L.M., S.T. [illegible] when I needed you.

DONALD BERGER: Mom and Dad — Thanx for everything — I Love You. These next years you'll be proud. Dad, I needed your support. Kakie, my life is yours . . . Forever. I Love You. Hey guys, good luck playing Coll-Ball. S.S. and M.L., brothers of the past are still in my mind. Thanx Nobs.

SARAH BIALLAS: Anne, George, Lynda, Mary, we finally made it! Charlene, lets draw some more pictures sometime! Mom, thanks for being there. Tammy, you better send me an invitation next year. Mr. Cotter, did you really think you could get rid of me? Thanks every one.

LUCY BOERSMA: "If you know who you are and what you want and why you want it, and if you have the confidence to do it, you can!" Thanks to all my friends who made the past four years great!

NORMAN A. BONGON JR.: To all my good friends, Thanks for making my years at Encinal as good as they were. Good luck in whatever your future plans may be. Special THANKS to my love, JOY, for bringing so much happiness into my life.

LINDA BRADFORD: Give us no aggravation we've had it with discipline. Saturday nights, alright. Get some action in. Goodbye yellow brick road. Morris, Snail, Frog, to thy own self, be true. Melinda be ready at dawn. Alfa Bull. To my family all my love.

LESLIE BRADLEY: Thanks to some I've learned love is a way of Letting Out Violent Emotions. Then there's my crowd of friends who I'll find it hard to live without, having known me since they were crumb snatchers. Life goes on! And go on it will thanks to Mom, Joe, and Genell. Farewell!

SHARON "PALEO" BRADY: "Everybody has a place or time — A chance to laugh; a need to find Something that we care about, I propose you find that out . . ." Okay fine, where's the wine? To my EHS family — thanks for making the commute worth it. Squeek and Lori — LIFE WITHOUT TRIUMPH?!?!

JACK D. BROADBENT: Most of my poems are written in haste, and are therefore resultantly lacking in taste, yet people who read them and think they are fine, must surely have taste justs as rotten as mine. With that I bid you farewell!

JILL ESTHER BROADBENT: PSSH! Ahh! YUK! YUK! Killer . . . to rad speechless goobers, oneway is the right way to greenmen, poolcovers — Mb. Best Bk. s of them all Queen Ant on the road again I red JM — Hope the toast on the floor comes true I Love You Lots MK Ump = Seven, JI Love Ya Hatcan here comes the eye [illegible]

ANTHONY ANDREW BROWN: The Worlds great men have not commonly been great scholars, nor its great men great scholars. To my friends; T.T., D.S., J.L., C.R., C.G., G.C., M.L., B.L., W.R., M.F., and especially, T.M.B.!! I hope success will be yours. Good luck. 82's for you!!

ANN BULLIS: I really had a great time in my years at Encinal. But as time goes on I begin to think of all of my friends that I'm beginning to miss already. Good luck in the future and remember, "The class of 82 will shine on you!

FRANCES BULLMAN: To my friends at Encinal, thanks for all the support you've given me. Mom and Dad without you nothing could have been possible. Most of all to the guy I like Dewayne E. he knows who he is, I hope. Maybe someday we can get together. Best wishes to J.R.O.T.C.

ROSETTA BURGO: Well our last year has finally gotten here. Susan G. and Darlene E., I will never forget you two because you guys were always there when I needed you. Virginia S. we get to HELE on to Hawaii! Patricia S. Good luck! O'OE WAHINE AU KEOLHA to all of my friends of Encinal. ALOHA WAU IA OE Mom, Dad and Chester Kalani Hanawahine.

SHERI BUSTER: To all the party people; TG, BT, KM, BH, LV, KW, LP, EP, JL, TT, KN, DB, LB, Mom Dad I Love You. I just want for all of you, to find your happiness, to grow in learning the facts of life, and how to understand people . . . When you find your happiness, hold on tight, Don't Let Go!!!

TALONA MARIE BYARS: Class of '82, we're coming out, we'll go our separate ways to find what the world is about, I thank God, my Mother, and my Grandmother for supporting me through hard times. Good luck, peace and happiness always to my friends. Remember me always.

MELANIE CALIXTO: To Nance, Bets, Art, Marty, Cynthia, and Janice; "for all the good times, laugh times, and silly sentimental times we've shared, I celebrate you, my friends!" Hey Lisanti — don't lose that "special" touch! S.M.; "Mahal Kita" "Always and Forever." Goodbye everyone! See ya next time!

CEZAR Z. CAMERINO: Sure am going to miss a lot at Encinal. I'm especially gonna miss missing my classes and standing in line at the att. office. Thanx for the memories. I hope next year's people won't feel the same! Lots of luck

SHERRI "TOO TALL" CANNON: Thanks Mom for all the love you have given me, and my loving sisters Debra and Carla. Earl Johnson, you're the sweetest. Don't stop believing. Reann's friend for life. Diane S., T.J. Swan and Kamala W., T.O.C., and coach here we come.

RENEE CARAVEO: I wish my fellow seniors good luck and party til you're BROKE! L.L., L.A., V.D., M.B., S.H., S.M., L.M., R.G., thanks for the laughter and good times Mom and Dad you're the BEST! Well Bye Bye E.H.S. Luv U all!

DWAYNE CARLEN: GOOD BYE, ALL!!!

BRETT CHAMBERS: Well the big twelve years are done! I must admit, I survived. To the poor unfortunate underclassmen, HA! HA! BF, JB, Al's class was a trip. GB, BM, and The Klan, keep partying. Finally Thanks Mr. Noble and Coaches, keep up the good work.

MICHAEL CHO: It was the best of times; it was the worst of times. Blessed with unexpected honors and unforgettably grateful cares, I have begun to realize the American dream, my dream which some people doubted. Well, Emerson was right when he said, "Nothing is at last sacred but the integrity of your own mind."

JAMES CHRISTENSEN: Thanks go to my four best teachers, Mr.'s Brown, Winberg, Medeiros and Kruse for teaching me things I need to know. Extra thanks goes to Mr. Kruse and Mr. Medeiros for information for me to become a Marine Biologist. Special thanks to my foster Mother for raising me and urging me on toward higher Goals, Good-Bye E.H.S.

DORA CHUN: To my friends; As we go our separate ways, into the world's maze of life, we remember the days of high school strife. May you all achieve your goals! Thanks Mom and Dad for everything. And to the rest of you who'll be here next year; Take care and make it great.

TERESA CORDOVA: To Chris I . . . thanks for helping me out, for being there when I needed a friend. To Dang N. . . . you're a good friend, I'll treasure your friendship forever. To ALL my friends, I'll always remember the good times we had. To the Class of "82," GOOD LUCK!!!

GINA CRANE: My life has been filled with great times, thanks to my family and friends. It's true good things never last "forever." CB . . . my high school sweetheart, whether we stay together or part, you'll always be in my heart. To all my FRIENDS thanks. I'll be missing you. I LOVE YOU!

MARY LOU CUELLAR: I thank my beautiful parents for understanding and believing in me. Also, those teachers that helped me out so much, and taught me. Mrs. Slater, the most understanding, and Mr. Medeiros, just a loving teacher to me; and feelings mutual.

KATHRYN ALICIA DABNEY: Let your life lightly dance on the edge of time like dew on the top of a leaf. Chrys, Lisa, and Deb, this is it! If life gives you lemons, make lemon pie. Shanon; your sunshine smiles brighten the cloudest day! Mom and Dad — you're the greatest! I Love You All! New York, HERE I COME!!!

TERESA MARIE DALASSANDRO: Achieve all possible, attempt all possible. Be ourselves but dream of being more. THANKS Mom, my inspiration and Dad for patience. I Love You Also G.S., L.L., R.E., I wish you life's best. May God Bless You All!

MICHAEL P. DARBISON #12: It hasn't been all that fun watching all my teammates gun. In fact it's been a little tragic but that's OK because I am "MAGIC." I fake left but spin right you turn your head and I'm out of sight.

LISA DAVIDSON: Encinal holds many memories for me. Chrys, Deb, Lalla, Dab and Nanon, we've got the world in our hands, let's take it for a ride. Mom and Dad, you've been great, Thank You. "Babe, I Love You." Bye-Bye Gorman and Noble

RICK DAYSOG: This was no casual passing benefit, from here I did see into the headwaters of the river. This spring is where inspiration drinks, where intuition sparks the beginning, where poets' dreams burst forth and throughout my life I will look back and dream. Goodbye

ROBERT DER: It's been a GREAT four years at Encinal, and I would like to thank all the teachers who have been a part of my life. To my friends and the class of '82, good luck in the future. I Love You, Mom and Dad

VIRGINIA DERMONT: Well this is it! All we have now are memories. SS (VERP); you've been a great friend! You too TL, JF, DP, HJ, and LJ. Thanks for being there. Remember, there's lots of nails out there so make sure you get one

MIKE DONSON: Thanks to the radicals of 81, 82 and 83 for the best four years of my life. Well I guess I'll see you guys at the Keg and Clam bakes and to all the Ford and Mopar Lovers, I'll see you at the races. Later Dudes!

QUIMBY DONSON: To all my casual friends thanks for [illegible] all the [illegible] and good times. We had some great ones. And to [illegible] all those people who think I'm a pervert and an animal, thanks for the popularity.

RICHARD DONSON: Thanks for all those good times you guys. I couldn't have had any better without you RADICALS of 81, 82 and 83. All those weekends, Assemblies, and bleach burnouts couldn't of happened without you guys, so take care and don't stop thrashin and stay out of trouble.

MARY A. DROST: The stepping stones of life. Another step has been accomplished with family, friends, and faculty support. Good luck Missy, Beaver, and Wemple, Kuhnberry and Skywalker. Thanks Annette, for being a friend and sister to me. I love EHS! From Space-Cadet!!!

ANNA ENG: High School has come and gone, many memories are still in my mind. Good memories to cherish forever and bad ones to forget. Now it is time to move on, like the saying goes; Here today, gone to College.

DARLENE ENRIQUEZ: To Kay, Sue, Icket, and Gracie at ND. Thanks for the kindness and love you gave me. True friends are hard to find, yet I've found the best of friends in YOU!! To Mom, Pops and the Enriquez clan, thanks for still loving me through thick and thin. B. Woon, You light the way of everyday of my life, I Love You Sweets.

MARYANN ESCOTO: Memories last forever. Thanks E.H.S. for a great 2 years. Thanks Ms. Kinchen and all my buddies. Special thanks — Angela, you were always there when I needed you. To the 2 people I Love most in the world; my brother and my mommy. I Love you so! Por Vida!

DARRYL FARALES: I thank my parents, my sister Cheryl and my brother Ed. Though we've had rough times, we never really lost our cool. In addition, I express my gratitude to my long time friends Marty, John, James and the rest of everybody. Kevin make sure Ed doesn't get into trouble. Good bye.

MELISSA FAIRFIELD: To be or not to be. Sometime when you reach for a dream you have to leave something behind. Best of times Knuckles Frog, Jen—no matter how they toss the dice it has to be "Wave Action" always. Melinda I'm sleeping in. Thanx Mom and Dad I LOVE YOU.

LISA FINKBINER: Well, I'm not very good with words, but I just have to say, "I told you so, Mom and Dad!" I want to say I Love You; L.T., D.M., J.G., C.S., and you too M.D. Hope to see you soon! Bye!

JANICE FINELL: Senior year ends one life and begins another. A time to reflect the special friendships acquired. Cynthia, Joy, Bonnie, Linda, Nancy, Mels, Karen, Anna, your friendships will always be treasured. I Love You Mom, Dad, Sandy, Sparky, Kitty, May God be with you always.

CHRIS FISCHBACH: To my fellow Encinal students, "we've made it." Memories and our friendships are all we have left. To my good friends John, Dang, Gerald, Sangre, Bonz, Haze and my sisters Melanie and Betty. "I'll always remember you and please keep in touch." '82 will always be BEST!!!

LUCRICIA Y. FLEMMINGS: "82" we are finally breaking through with good times on our minds and bad times behind. Love and thanks to Mom, Dad and family TI and LG. Friends, KW, TB, GS, PR, IR, SB, DB, KH, RN, MC, TT, JL, GC — RKI" and with love and happiness Joseph Wright. Thanks LHS.

LORRAINE (LORD M.) FRISKO: Encinal has lots of good memories, O.J. and Bear, I'll love you both 4 ever. Terry, M.B., M.M., M.W., Dwayne, Erik, Robert, Rob, Rick, Lisa, Frank, and everyone else Take Care, good bye. Thanks for caring Michele, Dave, Mom and Dad, I love you. Dwayne thanks for being a friend.

LAURA GALLAGHER: Prof. Eggy, Homemaker, Stack and Jack. You guys, swimming, sun and yogurt park made all the VA times disappear! TIGER, FAITYIII! — What else can I say? Jack and Stack, big VA for next year! Home: Turn me Loose to Blondies and Y.P.! Eggy: Lets get some MCIC! LARGE DEAL!

PHIL DICK GARDUNO: Thanks RADICALS OF 81, 82 and 83 for all the fun we had. I'll never forget. The major trashing has only begun, so lets live up to our nicknames. See you guys at the Kegs, Clam Bakes, Bleach Burnouts, Drags and at the next war cuz we're all going to DU anyway. Later Snakes. Chuck Chuck.

SUSAN M. GONZALES: To my best of friends, Darlene L. and Katherine H. Thanks for the crazy times! Thru our school years we've shared something special called friendship. I Luv Ya both! Joemily and Lindavid I luv ya too! To my ever so special Sergio Dionisio. I Luv "Being with you" cuz I Luv You.

HERM GORIS: Thank you for the wonderful year here at Encinal, it was great. I'll remember it forever and wish the best for you in the future. Special love to Sylvia, Kate, and Mr. Grant to whom I would love to show the changed old world.

BRYAN GORMAN: It's finally over. No more boring classes. I have had lots of fun over these last four years, and I hope the people in the future have as much fun. Thanks to everyone.

ANGELA GOVAER: MANY DAYS have passed, and we were together but 24 hours. I thank the choir C.J., P.G., T.S., S.S., J.T., B.A., P.S., and Ms. Kinchen. And to my closest and dearest friend Mary (Prieta). Together we've been good, bad, happy, and sad. I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH. I LOVE YOU MAMA. Thanks for your love.

SHANON LEE GRAHAM: Liza, Chrystl, Debi, and the spirit girls, you've made my past 4 years "Something Special." Toni and Carm, there's "Nothing Like It." Lisa (Dab Dab), my bestest friend ever, THANKS! Big Brothers Pat and Setho thanks for caring. Mom and Dad, you're the BEST! Bye to the "Burger King" in 308. I LOVE YOU ALL!!!

TINA I. GROLL: To all my friends and family thanks for all the memories, you're all beautiful people. Love Ya' Babe. I give to you all my heart, now and forever, for you are the only one for me. Brenda Jane you're beautiful. Mom and Dad Thanks. Benjamine T. I Love You.

ANDRIANA GUERRO: They are not duplicates — your life and mine, God doesn't utilize the same design for both. You'll have joys I'll never know. Some griefs I'll not undergo. Some hills of hope are not for me. Your disappointments may not cross mine. We prove God's decree — Your life is best for you, mine best for me.

TERRY (BEAR) GUSTAFSON: Different eyes see different things, different hearts beat different strings, there are times for you and me when all things will agree." (Rush). Thanks for all the time and help, Michele "80," Lori, Cathy, RH, GT, What a trip. My fellow partiers, the best of luck. Capt. James High Lives On!!

ROBERT HANES: To all my friends RA, AB, EA, EM, RJ, Ballena Bay was and still is the place to party. Who cares if we graduate, we can still meet there next year after work, also special thanks CK, LP, and LD for being with me at Encinal. Later Hanna.

BILLY DON HARRIMAN: To those of you who know me; thanks for all the good times. To those of you who don't . . . well you probably aren't important anyway.

CORY HASSETT: We finally made it. We've had good times together and I'll always remember. If it wasn't for all of you it would have been rough. Thanks to a special guy who was there when I needed him the most. Thanks to all my friends for everything. Take Care. Love Ya.

LYNDA HAVENS: "Only four more years to go. Thanks for all your help and guidance. Class of '82 will always rule!"

JERRY J. HEARNE: To all my rad friends, their hot rods, and bleach burnouts, we never went to a party that didn't turn out. They had their ladies, they had their fun, but I was picky so I only kept one. I LOVE L.A.G.

SUSAN HERNANDEZ: Thanks Mom and Dad for helping me through High School. Q-VO Homegirls it was nice tripping with you all! To my oldman Jesus Zuranich I'm happy we're still together "1 yr." "The one who really loves you."

JIM HINES: As I look back over the last 3 years, I think I would have studied my butt off! Since I didn't do that, special thanks to Holly Bride, Joe Seiss, Hazel Thomas, Kerri Ely, Marty-Bob, Dang and Lucy B., without you all graduation might have been questionable! Love You All!

KATHERINE HUEY: To my pals, especially Dar, Sue, Grace and John who taught me something very important about friendship, it it depended on space and time. "But overcome space and all we have left is here. Overcome time, and all we have left is now." This goes for you too Nate. Thank You.

CHARLENE (CHARLIE) JACKSON: From the Days of Evermore to Eternity I'll treasure my friends D.M., K.S., M.V., C.H., T.R. Thanks S.B. NO MORE Pictures. G.S. FAME. Forever. Mamma Poopsie Love Ya'

KATY KENNEY: "I'm sailing away, set an open course for the Virgin Sea, cause I've got to be free, free to face the life that's ahead of me," (Styx). D.D. and T.D. my other sisters, love ya lots. S.R.K. alligators forever. K.A.M. Miss Prep 82. All you crazy foreigners, I'm coming to visit and that's a promise! See Ya!

WONSOK KIM: High School is the inspiration of life. There have been bad times and good times that will be in my memories forever. If one knows bad times then one knows good times too. So Hang in there kids!! P.S. Cool guys never say bye!!!

CLAUDE KRAMER III: Throughout the four years I've been at E.H.S., I have enjoyed every minute. To all of my Senior classmates, "Live long and Prosper." To all the underclassmen, be dedicated and you will be truly happy.

CHERYL KUHN: Encinal's been fun. Thank you Mom and Dad. To all the partiers, have fun! Graduation, a pound of fun! Find happiness in the future Missy, Beaver, Wemple, Skywalker, and Space Cadet. Take care, and don't be cruizing and token TOO much!

NANCY KURAMOTO: Life is continually changing. Each day is full of new experiences. So instead of living in the future, live a fresh new life everyday. Live the best you can "now." Accept life dynamically with appreciation and gratitude.

FELICIA Y LEE: It's finally my turn to take that first step alone. Without my parents, I wouldn't have made it. Thank you AP, GS, TD, for fun at E.H.S. Both R. and D. Dorsey made my life fun. Remember, education's the key to success and college will help, so don't stop here!

MICHAEL LEE: I'm finally out of school, now what do I do, go to college for another four years. Quanta, Jyles, Eugene, Jake, McQuinn, Wizard, and my favorite smurf #1 it's been a trip with you guys. Thanks Mom and all my coaches. Thanks to my best coach ever Pops.

SIDNEY LEE: Time is drawing near when we must go on our own ways. I can't believe that my years at E.H.S. are over. I'd like to thank all my friends that made these years possible. Best of luck to you all. P.S. Have fun while you can.

SANDY LIM: Good-bye Encinal, it's time to continue on in life. Thanks, Lori, Sharon, Sara, Mo, Ed, Dennis, Bev, and John, for all the memories. And to my Babe Brian, I love you now and I'll love you always. Life's been good to me so far!!! Class of "82."

CATHERINE LISANTI: To all my friends I would like to say thanks for making my years at E.H.S. special. Mel, Bet, Take care and remember our "shake." Thanks to my special friends M.S. and C.M. without you I wouldn't have made it this far. Take care, I Love You ALL!!

DAVID LOMBA: All good things must come to an end and so it is with High School. Four years isn't as long as it seems. Good luck to all my friends as we go our separate ways. Basketball was fun, I never missed twice, my moves were "Cold As Ice" #30. LATER!!!

CECLIA LOPEZ: Sometimes it's hard for a person to face reality, but you have to try, like saying Good-bye to my friends who made my "high school life" worthwhile. I'll miss it. Thanks "NATAY," Brooke "... WHO HOLDS THE KEY ..." Let's hope for the best.

LORNA LOPEZ: Thanks mom and dad for bringing me into this world. Thanks to Maria (Mom) and Bob (Dad) for getting me through HIGH SCHOOL. Robert, I had fun being with you. "REALLY LOV YOU." Love you sister Margie. Homegirls DE E.H.S. "PARTY OVER HERE!"

SALVADOR LOPEZ: Even though we're finally out, don't worry cause I won't pout, someday when college is through, I'll come by to visit you, when I come, and that's no lie, we'll get together and all get high!

LOUISE BRIGITTA LYTH: I feel really fortunate to have had the opportunity to come to the U.S.A., to Alameda, and to Encinal. IT HAS BEEN A GREAT EXPERIENCE FOR ME. Good luck to all my new friends and to the "DEAN." Come and see me in Sweden soon!!!

CYNTHIA MANGONON: Janice, Nancy, John, Kenny, Melanie, Susan, Marty and Barbara, the times and memories we've shared will always be treasured — forever! To my family and teachers; thanks for your help. To everybody, Be what you want to be ... remember ... dreams can come true if you want them to.

WILLY Q. MARILAO: Even though it took 4 years, when we go I'll leave no tears. I'll miss a lot I know that's true: the jocks, the stoners, yes punkers too. I'll be sad to leave my "sleepy." I'll sigh and cry and be real leaky. I'll write no more because I'm through.

SUZY MARQUEZ: James High thanks to all that helped me to make it. Janiro, sorry for being late so much! J. Bear and B. Bandid F. Forever. Al you'll never be forgotten. C.W. and D.M. drink up! J.J. "can't find the reasons." Good luck and God Bless all my buddies H.G. "Au Revoir!"

ERIC MAYSON: To all my friends I hope to see you all as much as I did in school then when I'm out. Because to have good life and future you must have good friends and I certainly plan on having a good life ahead of me. And I'd like to have some of you there with me.

GERADO MENCIAS: To every beginning there is an end, and we've reached it. R.C., C.L., A.D., M.S., T.C., and ALL my friends, I wouldn't have made it without you! Also, to a VERY SPECIAL friend (LIBERTY) that I care for and love. LISSY; Thanks for being my special someone ... I LOVE YOU!

DEBI MIDKIFF: It's 82 and we're out ... LIS, LITTLE J, LITTLE C. thanx for being there. (There's lots more!) EXECUTIONER, UE, BOTTY, HAWK, LES, CHICKY, and my VAR-STAR thanx for some Wino weekends!! See ya in A.A. Also; Trip Children; Mala and T.J. Mom and Dad I Love You. Look out world, 82's out!!!

GINA MILES: To my Aunt and Uncle; These past four years were the best of my life — I Love You!! I've met so many special people here, and I'll cherish the memories forever. To my special friends; stay sweet and stay close. Brenda — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christensen sounds good!! Is there life after high school?! BAND - SAWS ARE FOREVER!!!

SIR TIMOTHY R. MOLENBERG: Wisemen learn more from fools than from the wise. There is so much more to learn than what we have in the last four years. Keep this in mind. But, remember the jokes . . . remember the fun . . . remember the work we never got done! To revenge; this is the pact.

KATHERINE A. MUIR: "THE SECRET TO LIFE IS ENJOYING THE PASSAGE OF TIME —" JT. THANK YOU — DAW, Miss Bud 84, WALLY, Herm. KK — Tatertots go fast. Mon amie. LIG — nemoubliez-pas. SKR or SRK-1420. I'm seeng blue! Soccer was a ball! Hi Mom, I Love U. F=ma? It's been real and it's been fun, but it hasn't been really fun.

ROBIN NELSON: To all my friends I hope I will always know. I have always been there, and I will always be there for you. Thanks Mom. So long little boys and girls, just kidding. Bye E.H.S. thanks for the good times.

RYNO MARTIN NEWTON III.: Dear Ate Cindy, Art, Bjarne, Der, Darryl, Schwanze, Dang, Fop, Steve, Mel and Ron thanks for the fun times. Happiness is a family like mine. Dad, Mom, Reg, Tess, Bert, and Baby on way, I Luv you all. Love you ALL dearly, especially "The One That I Love," Betty. Bye E.H.S.!!!

CHRISTY NERU: I'm glad to get out . . . but then again . . . I want to give a special thanks to my Mom and two brothers and I Love You Raymond . . . See ya S.G. and K.N. God Bless everyone and thanks E.H.S. . . . Bye Birdies and Poops! "82" Good Luck Derek!

LINDA NG: It matters not how straight the gate, How charged with punishments the scroll, I am the master of my fate, I am the captain of my soul

DANG "IT" NGUYEN: To MOM, DAD and TWEETY; The three most important people in my life. Thanks for being there. I LOVE YOU ALL!!! Leaders Debate: Who's on Second? "No, I Second!"

"I make a motion that . . .", "No!", "You dummy!", "You say I move that the Leadership Class fund a perform . . .", "Second!", "Wait, I haven't finished." Such were the words of Leaders.

Elected student government met daily in room 10 to debate in parliamentary perfect preciseness.

Spirit week, Blood drive and Homecoming dances, and the Christmas Faire followed by the '82 activities which included two elections. A movie for the Sophs who purchased the most students cards, the book drive for Friends of the Library, and Rock and Roll-A-thon for the heart fund, were part of the drive to lead EHS Students into the world of decision making. In the final analysis student leaders did make many decisions and democratic traditions of debate were alive and well.

Invaders From Europe Capture Encinal With Ease and Friendship

The forces of western Europe invaded and captured Encinal with triumphant ease last fall. Representatives of Sweden, Denmark, Netherlands, and Switzerland made up the force. Their invasion tactics included friendly smiles, warm personalities, willingness to try American sports, and above all, to be friends and learn about America.

Bjarne Petersen, Louise Lyth, Barbara Predieri, and Herm Goris all agreed life differed from Europe in America. To the four, American schools were more casual than those of their homeland, and the American way of life was life in the fast lane compared to "old fashioned" Europe. As one student put it; in fast foods modernized America one can go to the store, buy a cake mix, put it in the microwave and minutes later have a cake — That was just not the way life was lived in Europe. It was also a shocker to learn that boys paid for dates here rather than being equal with the girls.

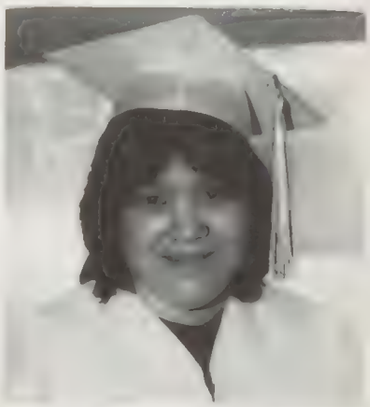
TOP TEN

#1 Cynthia Mangonon, Michael Cho, and Nancy Kuramoto.

#2 Monique Swart

#3 Lyle Jew and Robert Der



#4 Debbie Wadford

The past four years challenged the class of '82. Challenges included growing up, the daily routine of high school life — homework, exams, and the inevitable report card. Long lunch lines, tardy bells, the excitements of football games and school dances provided diversions for everyone. On June 9, they realized that they played the game, marched on to victory, and was now ready to move on to bigger and brighter adventures.

Every class has some students who achieved outstanding recognition. They are commonly called the Top Ten. This year's lineup was led by Michael Cho, Nancy Kuramoto, and Cynthia Mangonon with a grade point average of 4.0. Finishing close behind were Monique Swart, Lyle Jew, Robert Der, Debbie Wadford, Brenda Ainslie, Alan Yip, Bill Harriman, Sharon Beady, Won Sok Kim, Laura Gallagher, and Melanie Calixto.

The colleges these students looked at for the future were U. C. Berkeley, U.C. Davis, Sacramento State, and U.C. Santa Barbara.

Horizon Aim: Record All That Is Positive in Each Students' Life

Under the editorial leadership of Melanie Calixto and Rashmi Garde, the HORIZON staff members combined their talents to produce Encinal's 1982 yearbook. The staff of fourteen strove to create a yearbook which would equal or surpass the quality of all previous HORIZONS. Art Roke, yearbook advisor; and other HORIZON staff veterans worked with the new staff members in meeting their numerous deadline schedules. Staff duties included: taking pictures of on campus and off campus activities, writing and rewriting copies, setting up the actual layouts, and getting ads for the yearbook. $4,600 was made in the selling of ads.

It is the HORIZON'S philosophy to honestly seek out and record the positive side of student life in 1981-82 and leave the negative side to the daily news media. Because yearbooks are special memories for students in school, HORIZON has tried to cover each group as equally and accurately as possible.

Illness Forces Two Executive Changes

Frank Hanna
Principal

Richard Gorman's illness forced a change in the administrative staff. During the period following his operation, Warner Croll assumed the Dean of Students job.

Principal, Frank Hanna and vice principal, Ken Biba tackled the administrative problems including discipline and attendance.

A college letter of recomendation for a graduating senior was one of the most pleasant jobs everyone, from head counselor Joe Yeoman to John Bay performed. Day to day counseling included helping underclassmen plan schedules for the coming year.

The Student Advisory Committee, which included student body officers and class presidents met monthly with Superintendent Clarence Kline. Their discussions had impact on administrative problems.

Special Adults Support Students They Give Us Individual Attention

Faculty members aided students. They were chaperones at dances, club sponsors, and class sponsors. In order to raise money for student activities, teachers helped out at fundraisers such as weekend car washes at gas stations, the Rigatoni Feed, and candy sales. Others coached teams which required after school practices.

The secretarial staff, custodians, and cafeteria workers indirectly helped students. Classrooms were kept clean by a staff led by head custodian, Ed Fassiotto. Cafeteria workers, managed by Sharon Sherak, prepared school lunches which sold for $1.00, an increase of 15¢ from last year. The secretarial staff kept track of attendance and issued a daily Master Absence List. Alberta Dole worked the Banking Office where tickets were sold for sporting events and yearbooks were sold.

The Year in News

Bells were heard throughout the world as Charles, Prince of Wales exchanged wedding vows with Lady Diana Spencer.

Pope John Paul II, Egyptian President Anwar Sadat and President Ronald Reagan were all victims of assassins, but only President Sadat suffered death.

The Polish crisis brought world wide attention as Lech Walesa lead the fight of Solidarity for changes in Poland.

The entire Bay Area rooted for Joe Montana and the San Francisco Forty-niners in Superbowl XVI. (SF won.) After a three month long players strike, the baseball season ended with the World's Series. Fernando Valenzuela was MVP. Caroline Yao earned the title of Prep Tennis Player of the year in the Oakland Tribune.

Good Morning, yesterday
You wake up and time has slipped away
And suddenly it's hard to find
The memories you left behind
Remember, do you remember?
The laughter and the tears
the shadows of misty yesteryears
The good times and the bad you've seen and all the others in between
Remember, do you remember
the times of your life?
Reach back for the joy and the sorrow
Put them away in your mind
For memories are times that you borrow
To spend when you get tomorrow . . .
Here comes the setting sun
The seasons are passing one by one
So gather moments while you may
Collect the dreams you dream today . . .
Remember,
do you remember
the times of your life?

Graduation... A Celebration, And Intermission.

Like looking across the river
from a restful bank,
This is perspective.
And, shared with another,
It is intermission.

Graduation, similarly, gives a
looking back from plateau,
This is summation.
And, shared with classmates,
This is celebration.
